This is because of you. The help and support you give brings hope and changes many lives. Thank you for your generosity.

We have raised $10,175.00 and have surpassed our goal of $9,300.00. If you are still interested in donating towards this campaign please use a ShareLife envelope, or at sharelife.org/donate.

The Ascension of the Lord

The feast of the Ascension is celebrated on the fortieth day after Easter Sunday, honouring the Ascension of Christ into Heaven and His completion of the work of our redemption. The liturgy on this day celebrates the entry of Christ into heaven with our human nature glorified, and the pledge of our glorification with Him. In the past, processions outside the church were held on this day to imitate Christ's leading the Apostles out of the city to the Mount of Olives.

Saints of the Week

Saint Eugene de Mazenod (May 21)

Charles Joseph Eugene de Mazenod was born in France in 1782. Ordained in 1811, his religious experience led him to minister to the poor and the young. Interested in popular missions, Eugene founded a missionary institute of priests and lay brothers in 1826, the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, whose particular charism is to minister to those who have never heard of Christ. By the middle of the 19th century, in response to requests for help from North American bishops, especially Bishop Ignace Bourget of Montreal, the congregation sent several of its small number to Canada. Within 10 years of their arrival, the oblates had covered all of Canada and expanded into the United States.

Eugene became bishop of Marseilles in 1837 and reorganized the diocese, accomplishing great works. A fervent supporter of the papacy in matters of education and infallibility, he continued as superior of the Oblates until his death on May 21, 1861. Eugene was canonized on December 3, 1995.

Today, the members of this community work around the world in remote missions and in education. In Canada, Oblates established the College of Bytown (which became the University of Ottawa and Saint Paul University) and Novalis, as well as numerous parishes and dioceses from coast to coast.
