Cardinal Collins' Pastoral Letter on Stewardship
Section Three: Reasons to Become Involved with Stewardship

The third section of Cardinals Thomas Collins' Pastoral Letter on Stewardship is focused on Reasons to become involved with Stewardship. The reasons being: it is Biblical, fruitful, realistic, comprehensive, continuous proactive and it addresses the engagement dilemma. "Stewardship calls for nothing less than both individual and communal conversion, rooted in faith and fruitful in action." To read the full pastoral letter please visit: www.archtoronto.org/stewardship

Confession is a Place of Victory

In today's first reading we hear about how Moses received the Ten Commandments from God on Mount Sinai. The Church has always taught that the Ten Commandments are a gift that God has revealed to us to help us orient our lives in a way that best leads us to holiness. In the Gospels, in addition to teaching about the Ten Commandments, Jesus teaches about the importance of loving God and loving our neighbour. The Catechism states that the Ten Commandments "must be interpreted in light of this twofold yet single commandment of love, the fullness of the Law"

As we are in this penitential season of Lent let us take some time to reflect on how well we are living up to these commandments. One common way of doing this is to perform an examination of conscience. This involves reflecting on our own lives in light of the Commandments and their related sins. This isn't meant to be a sadistic practice of self-loathing but rather an opportunity to see in which ways we can grow in deeper love for Christ and our neighbour.

The best way we can start this process of growth is to avail ourselves to the sacrament of Confession. Confession always remains a place of victory for the Lord is achieving our salvation through the forgiveness of our sins. To be reconciled with God is always a source of celebration. Let us not look to our examination of conscience and confession as a place of guilt and defeat. Instead, this Lent let us be cleansed through the grace of the sacrament so that we may grow as ever holier stewards of Christ.

ShareLife

You bring love and hope to young mothers.

Many young women are unexpectedly pregnant don't know where to turn for help. Through your support for ShareLife, our agencies ensure they have the resources they need to keep their education on track, provide their babies a healthy start, and create a bright future.

Our goal for our campaign is $12,500.00. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, or at www.sharelife.org/donate.

Baptism Catechises

Our next session will be on September 7 & 14 from 10am-12pm. Please inform your family of this next session.

A Catechesis on Charisms

March 7, 2024, from 10 - 11:30 a.m.

As stewards, God has given us many diverse gifts for the building up of the Kingdom of God in our parish communities. Some, like talents, are natural gifts which can be inherited from our parents, while others, such as charisms, are spiritual gifts of the Holy Spirit. As Archbishop Francis Leo preached on Stewardship Sunday, "ministering out of a charism, be it in our parish communities and other modes of communal Christian living, always energizes us, fills our daily living with joy, freedom and meaning." As a member of the faithful who was given a new life at Baptism, do you have a God-given charism? The answer is yes you do! Join Most Reverend Scott McCaig, Bishop of the Military Ordinariate of Canada to learn more about charisms. Register now!

Parish Photo Directory

We will be holding additional photography sessions for our parish directory on Thursday April 4, Friday April 5, and Saturday April 6. Session times are 2:30pm-8:30pm on Thursday and Friday, and 9:00am-3:00pm on Saturday. If you did not get your photo taken in November, please contact the parish office via email or phone to let us know that you intend to book an appointment, and our coordinator will get back to you.

Participation is free, and every family photographed will receive a free directory. You will have the option of purchasing photographs for yourselves at rates that are under current professional studio rates.

As our numbers continue to grow, we strongly encourage you to participate in this directory so that we can get to know each other and build up our parish community.
