FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

This Sunday marks the end of the Church's Liturgical Year. Today we, the Church, celebrate the feast of Christ the King. With the coming of Jesus Christ, God's Kingdom is definitely inaugurated. It is the Kingdom of peace, love and justice. Through Baptism we are called to serve Christ, our King.

In preparation for Christmas, from December 1st to 24th, you can read a chapter from the Gospel of Mark.

NEW: Your gift will double in value! From November 1 until year end, your contribution to our parish's ShareLife campaign will be matched by an anonymous donor up to a total of $500,000.

Covenant House is one of the agencies you support through ShareLife. It's located in Toronto, but its young clients – largely homeless youth – arrive from throughout the archdiocese.

"Your commitment to love and care for the youth experiencing homelessness and trafficking who come to Covenant House truly means so much," says the agency's director. "Your support gives hope to young people who need hope right now – and you give youth a real chance for a better future."

Our goal this year is $12,500.00. To date we have achieved $10,747.00. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate

St. Andrew Dung-Lac & Companions (Nov. 24)

In the 16th century Christian missionaries went to live among the people of Vietnam. From the 17th to 19th centuries, some 130,000 Christians were martyred. Andrew Dung-Las (born 1785) and Peter Thi, Vietnamese priests, were beheaded on December 21, 1839.

A letter written in 1843 by Paul Le-Bao-Tinh, an imprisoned martyr, describes his faith in God's love and mercy:

"I, Paul, in chains for the name of Christ, wish to relate to you the trials besetting me daily, in order that you may be inflamed with love for God and join with me daily in his praises, 'for his mercy is forever.' The prison here is a true image of everlasting hell: to cruel tortures of every kind – shackles, iron chains, manacles – are added hatred vengeance, calumnies, obscene speech, quarrels, evil acts, swearing, curses, as well as anguish and grief. But the God who once freed the three children from the fiery furnace is with me always..."

In June 1988, Pope John Paul II declared 117 Vietnamese martyrs saints of the Church.
